CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS ISSUE 6 SEPTEMBER 2024

We prioritize researchers, fostering collaboration, embracing innovation, ensuring quality, and working with speed

Who We Are?

SSJ is a multidisciplinary journal that is driven by a community of peer reviewers and editorial board members. It is powered by advanced technology, including artificial intelligence, and is held to rigorous quality standards.

The SSJ community is encouraged to envision a future where the journal collaborates with innovative scientific communities and partners to enhance the relevance and impact of research and learning.

We aim to generate scientific discoveries, foster lifelong learning, and resolve practical problems for a better world.
